

FILIPINA ARTIST HOLDS ONE-WOMAN EXHIBIT IN SWISS HOTEL

On 05 November 2014, Philippine Ambassador Leslie J. Baja was guest of honor at the vernissage of the solo exhibit of Filipino artist, Ms. Pamela Gotangco, at the Seedamm Plaza Hotel and Casino in Pfäffikon, Zurich, Switzerland.

Ms. Gotangco's solo exhibit, entitled "Pretty Playful", featured her current works in celebration of the hotel's Asian Food and Culture Festival.

Her works on display are influenced by Asian culture, most especially the Filipino dance "Tinikling", and other contemporary Asian influences such as the Japanese Manga and Anime.

Ambassador Baja and Ms. Gotangco posing before the latter's work entitled: "Tinikling with Manong Matisse". Ms. Gotangco's other current works may be viewed online at <http://www.gotangcoart.com/2014-artworks.html>.

Ambassador Baja commended Ms. Gotangco for bringing Filipino culture to the consciousness of the Swiss people. The works of Ms. Gotangco, said the Ambassador, prove that Filipino talent and creativity are truly world class.

Ms. Gotangco's works for the exhibit present an exploration of Asian feminism to promote equal opportunity for women, and highlight the role of women in our present society.

Both Swiss and Filipino guests attend the vernissage of Ms. Gotangco's solo exhibit "Pretty Playful" in Pfäffikon, Zurich.

Ms. Gotangco holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Media Studies and graduated from Miriam College Manila (Philippines). Her works have already been exhibited in Basel, London, Zurich, Miami, New York, among others, and is held in private and public collections. Born in the Philippines, she is currently based in Horgen, Zurich, Switzerland.

Ms. Gotangco's exhibition at the Seedamm Plaza Hotel and Casino will run until 30 November 2014. ###